ABOUT THE COVER.

Issue #51 features 2 things worth celebrating this month...

SPACE INVADERS - 1978

This month marks the 40th anniversary of the earliest icons of video gaming - Space Invaders. Arguably the most difficult & coolest game at TARG.

Although stories about Space Invaders being responsible for coin shortages in Japan are now regarded as myth, the moral panic surrounding a 12-year-old boy, armed with a shotgun, trying to relieve a bank of its coins to feed his Space Invaders addiction IS documented.

It's not surprising that game had such a cultural impact - many of its hall-mark features still stand the test of time. Cool graphics, amazing sound track an engaging narrative and the cabinet artwork is frightening as heck. It was also the first video game to popularize the concept of achieving a high score (good luck with that at TARG you need 5000+ to get on the board - but hey #nevergiveup).

Don't sweat it if you f e invaders start racing across or if you just plain suck at it... even the game creator Tomohiro Nishikado was crappy at it and could hardly make it past the 1st screen. "Had it been up to me," he says, "Space Invaders would have been a far easier game."

BERNARD'S BIRTHDAY MONTH

The cover also features someone who is great at games... Bernie, TARG's resident chip expert and Zine columnist celebrates the big 49. To commentate Bernards Big Birthday month we have re-printed his controversial and much loved "Top 10 Chips" article from issue #38 of TARG Zine - it's too good to not warrant a 2nd read. Happy Birthday Bernie!

SKA JEFF'S HI-FIVES

IN THE EARLY '80S, SAN FRANCISCO'S BAY AREA WAS THE EPICENTRE OF THE FASTEST, LOUDEST, HEAVIEST MUSIC IN THE WORLD. YOUNG, RIFF-HUNGRY BANDS WERE PUSHING THE GENRE'S BOUNDARIES, PLAYING WITH MORE SPEED & DEXTERITY THAN THEIR METAL CONTEMPORARIES, THEY SET THE STANDARD FOR WHAT WOULD BE KNOWN AS AMERICAN THRASH. HERE ARE MY TOP 5 BAY AREA THRASH METAL ALBUMS:

5. EXODUS - BONDED BY BLOOD

('84 - Combat Records) - Gritty, dirty, violent & highly aggressive just like the environment & time period that spawned it. Formed by Kirk Hammett in the late 70's.

4. DEATH ANGEL - THE ULTRA-VIOLENCE

('87 - Restless Records) - Created by cousins all of Filipino descent & who were teenagers, one being 12 years old. This was their debut album & a total thrash ripper.

3. ATTITUDE ADJUSTMENT - AMERICAN PARANOIA

('86 - Pismort Records) - This album is an absolute paramount crossover thrash album. It has every element of the genre that harbors greatness. Speedy riffs, spastic drum beats, & perfect hardcore punk vocals.

2. POSSESSED - SEVEN CHURCHES

('85 - Relativity/Combat Records) - Although starting out with thrash metal, there sound eventually became known as death metal, and this album absolutely changed the landscape of extremity in metal. One of my favourites.

1. METALLICA - KILL 'EM ALL

('83 - Megaforce Records) This album more or less singlehandedly launched thrash metal, by using the riffs of British heavy metal & the tempo of hardcore punk. This is an absolute classic.

Recently released in March 2018 by Stern, IRON MAIDEN was designed by Keith Elwin who is regarded as one of the greatest tournament pinball players of all time. Fun fact - this pinball machine was originally designed and themed around the animated series ARCHER.

In this month's lesson I'll be going over the game's Playfield Multiplier feature which will help you PLAY WITH MADNESS in the next House of TARG pinball tournament and have you screaming like Bruce Dickinson!

SONG CHOICE

At the start of each ball you can select your soundtrack of choice. This has no effect on gameplay whatsoever and is purely for the player to UP THE IRONS.

PLAYFIELD MULTIPLIERS

- If 2X Playfield is qualified, complete the X targets a Playfield. Scoring.
- Subsequent completions of the X targets with 3X qualified will increase the Playfield X timer.
- Once qualified, activate the Multiplier by rolling over a lit Activate X inlane. Use the flipper buttons to toggle the lit inlane.
- The base timer for the playfield multiplier is 20 seconds.
- Hitting a flashing X target while the multiplier is active will add 5 seconds to the timer.

GAME: MR. DO!

YEAR: UNIVERSAL 1982

RANK: ★★★★★

This clown fanatic of the video game world won hearts over when he debuted in 1982. Since then Mr. Do! has made his mark in the '80's era with games like Do Run Run (1983), Mr. Do's Castle or Mr. Do versus Un-icorn (1983), and Mr. Do's Wild Ride (1986).

The original Mr. Do is a joy and fun to play. The game itself is a maze, with our fanatic clown character attempting to clear the maze of monsters or cherries. The graphics are artsy and cute. Mr. Do can destroy the monsters two ways: by pushing an apple on top as many red baddies as he can, or use his 'power ball'. The power ball can bounce all over the maze and, once a monster is destroyed, always returns to Mr. Do. Once all the monsters are destroyed or cherries have been eaten, the player moves to the next level.

At the top of the screen, you'll notice a box with the word 'EXTRA'. You need to spell the word out to get an extra man. For that, go to the center of the game to claim a prize (cake or ice cream), and the Alpha Monster and his henchmen will appear. The henchmen will bear the same letters as in the box above. Destroy the henchmen with the power ball to spell out 'EXTRA' and claim your free man. If you kill the Alpha Monster, all the henchmen will turn into apples.

And finally, gamers, a diamond may appear during certain intervals of the game. It is worth 8,000 points. Grab it for the extra points and get a free game!

See you next month, gamers!

SISTERS IN THE CITY

INTERVIEWS WITH
Inspirational Women in the Ottawa Arts, Business & Entertainment Scene

BY: WIZARD SHEILA

AN INTERVIEW WITH AZARIN SOHRAKHANI

BORN: Tehran, Iran
JOB TITLE(S): Director of Industry Programming Ottawa International Animation Festival / Co-founder Ottawa Explosion Weekend Music Festival

Azarin's gift for connecting with the local Film/Music community and her arts administration savvy has helped enrich the Ottawa cultural landscape for nearly a decade. She was kind enough to take time out of her mega busy schedule (OXW takes place this month) to answer some questions & share her unique perspective

WHAT JOBS AND EXPERIENCES HAVE LEAD YOU TO YOUR PRESENT POSITION?

I'm a Director at the Ottawa International Animation Festival (OIAF), where I held a couple of different roles before this, so that gave me a really well-rounded background to be able to launch Ottawa Explosion Weekend, which is my other job.

WHAT DOES A TYPICAL WORK DAY ENTAIL FOR YOU?

A lot of cursing.

Then, it's all mainly emails, phone calls and excel sheets. A big part of both my programming gig at the OIAF and logistics of OXW are staying organized, maintaining relationships and staying on top of new artists, films and industry trends. I write a lot of grants, so that's another huge part of my job, writing. I also watch a lot of short films and listen to music to make sure I know what the heck is going on.

TELL US ABOUT A PROJECT OR ACCOMPLISHMENT THAT YOU CONSIDER TO BE THE MOST SIGNIFICANT IN YOUR CAREER SO FAR.

Starting Ottawa Explosion with my pals Emmanuel and Luke. It has been a huge feat, because it's still volunteer-run and we all hold fairly demanding full-time gigs.

We've managed to go 8 years strong, working with the community to develop an event that so many people are excited about attending and being a part of.

WHAT DO YOU LIKE THE MOST ABOUT WORKING IN THIS INDUSTRY?

In both jobs, I have the opportunity to see the greater picture of what's going on in a scene, community or industry and to identify areas needing improvement or change. Running festivals gives you the freedom to just do it - make the changes and it's done. This obviously only works if your stakeholders, partners and audience trust you. That takes a while :)

HOW DO YOU BEST SEEK OUT OPPORTUNITIES FOR NEW PROJECTS?

I talk to the community. You can't be an expert in everything, so it's important to learn and engage with the folks that you're doing this for.

HOW DO YOU KEEP UP WITH THE LATEST NEWS IN YOUR LINE OF WORK?

I attend Festivals, read blogs/trades, listen to podcasts, and watch and listen to everything that comes my way.

WHAT WOULD YOU TELL SOMEONE ABOUT TO START A CAREER IN YOUR FIELD?

Don't do it. Just kidding ... kind of.

You have to be passionate and devoted to your community, in my case that's music and film. You always have to remember that your event or festival exists for the community and not for you. The job requires paying it forward a lot, respecting your peers, being open to change and willing to stand up against all odds.

Ok, maybe it's awesome.

ACROSS THE STREET

By JOSH STAFFORD

&$#@ING SCORSESE / DE NIRO FILM FEST!

Throughout June, we are thrilled to present a four part festival showcasing one of the greatest director / actor collaborations in the history of cinema: Martin Scorsese and Robert De Niro. Don't miss watching these gems on the big screen, where they belong!

June 15th @ 9:00pm - FRIDAY THE 13TH PART III - 3D! A new dimension in terror...there's nowhere to hide! We dare you to try!

TAXI DRIVER - On every street in every city, there's a nobody who dreams of being a somebody - June 4th & 5th

GOODFELLAS - In a world that's powered by violence, on the streets where the violent have power, a new generation carries on an old tradition - June 11th & 12th

CAPE FEAR - There is nothing in the dark that isn't there in the light. Except fear - June 18th & 19th

CASINO - They had it all, they ran the show, and it was paradise... while it lasted - June 25th & 26th

P.S. - Proof that winning an Oscar sometimes doesn't really mean that much in the grand scheme of things, these four movie masterpieces combined garnered only one Academy Award, a deserved Best Supporting Actor win for Joe Pesci in Goodfellas. Nominations and critiques are subjective at the best of times, but many point to Dances With Wolves winning Best Picture in 1991 vs Goodfellas as evidence that the Academy Awards system is greatly flawed.

As Casey Kaseum says, "The hits keep on coming".

6- DORITOS SPICY NACHO
Caution: Extremely hot chips ahead. Doritos keeps their cool, but your taste buds will scream "HOT!"

8- DORITOS COOL RANCH
You can't go wrong with these triangle-shaped tortilla chips, with a touch of ranch & spices will have your taste buds wanting more.

Hola Tom! It's me... your #1 fan: ChipNut!!! Man, you are one tough hombre to get a hold of. I left a bunch of messages at your mom's house but I guess you didn't get them. Anyway, I've got some news that's gonna blow your mind, amigo! Remember when I wrote to you and asked you why there are no rippled salt and vinegar potato chips? Remember? Well, I finally found the HOLY GRAIL of potato chips! YES! I was checking out the snack aisle at Canadian Tire and BOOM! ...there they were. I couldn't believe it! Rippled salt and vinegar! They're made by some company called 'Frank'. It took me about two seconds to grab ten bags and slam down the cash! I dropped some off at your mom's house ('cause I knew you'd be stoked!). So my question is: Did you get them? Whaddaya think?

Signed, your #1 fan, ChipNut

DEAR CHIPNUT: I can't take this anymore. Stop calling my mom's place and stop leaving bags of chips in her mailbox. You're driving me crazy. Flavoured, rippled, salt and vinegar... I've told you a million times I don't care about chips. Goodbye, ChipNut.

Hey Tom: Summer's here and it's getting too hot for jeans. I want to wear shorts but I have an embarrassing tattoo on my leg. I don't want my crush to see it (for now anyway, if ya know what I mean... wink wink!). What can I do Tom? I've got a THING... for a summer FLING! Help!

Signed: BAD-ta-2

DEAR BAD-TA-2: How bad is it? I'm no tattoo artist, but one time I constructed a home-made tattoo gun (out of some old radio parts I had lying around) and I changed my buddy's barbed wire tattoo into a string of seaweed. Once all the infections cleared up it looked pretty good if he held his arm a certain way and you squinted. Anyway, come by my shop at Spaceman Music (388 Gladstone) and I'm sure I can turn whatever shameful thing you've got on your thigh into something you'll be proud to show off. With a little luck, we'll get you into shorts that your crush will want to get you out of! See ya soon, BAD-ta-2

Hey Tom: I'm dreadfully afraid of snakes. I have nightmares about snakes. I can't enjoy the outdoors for fear that I might see a snake. Just the thought of a snake terrifies me! I've heard that there are no snakes in Ireland. Can this be true? If so, I'm seriously considering moving to Dublin Signed - Signed - 'FRAID -a- SNAKES

DEAR 'FRAID-A-SNAKE: It's true – there are no snakes in Ireland. According to legend, St. Patrick drove them into the sea in the 5th century and there haven't been any since. But here's the thing: tons of islands (not just Ireland) are snake -free. Hawaii, New Zealand and Iceland are all void of snakes. So either St. Patrick was running around the globe like a lunatic driving snakes into the sea OR snakes are just lousy at swimming to islands. But here's the thing – you don't have to leave Canada! Anywhere above the 60th parallel will pretty much guarantee you zero snakes. The Yukon, Northwest territories, Nunavut, and a large chunk of northern Quebec will provide you with the peace and comfort of a snake-less existence. Look out Yellow Knife! Good luck, 'FRAID-a-SNAKES

CPU RAVE - DEMO
Runstate Tapes
Released: May 2nd, 2018

Right off the bat, I gotta tell you I LOVE this demo. CPU Rave are an exciting new band out of Montreal, with members of bands like Faze (who I've reviewed before in these pages), Public Display (who almost graced the Targ stage if not for plumbing problems that evening), Beep Test, and others.

For those who haven't heard it yet, they're playing noise punk with some slightly gothy & space rock-y edge to it. CPU Rave are doing everything right here as far I'm concerned. Call me picky if you want, but sometimes when I hear bands in this style, I feel like they kinda take the noisy, almost tv-static-esque sound of the guitar as an excuse to forgo catchy songwriting. CPU Rave don't sacrifice any of the speed or intensity typical of the sub-subgenre, and especially not the guitars that go "SKREE", and still manage to have just crazy hooks on every track here. At the same time, speed also isn't everything, and these guys know how to pull a nice mid paced number from out their sleeves.

Put noise bands like Lebenden Toten, death rock like Christian Death, and weird psych like Quetzal Snakes in a blender and this is demo is pretty much what you get. Sound like your cup of tea? Drink up bud.

Like this? Then make sure to check out another band making waves right now coming out of Montreal's extremely diverse scene, METALIAN. These heavy hitters are going to be gracing the stage of Targ once more on Saturday, June 23rd along with Brampton's FREEWAYS. Don't miss it!
