WORDS FROM THE

WIZARD

EVERY DAY AT THE HOUSE OF TARG IS AN ADVENTURE - SO MUCH TO EXPERIENCE & LEARN.

Sending out huge thanks to everyone who comes in to play games, eat perogies, set up/play shows, hang with pals, work/sweat, fix our plumbing - the list goes on forever. I'd like to take a moment to recognize everyone who I have ever forgotten to mention or been unaware of - your contributions to our dream are well appreciated and I am thankful to experience the dedication and support we receive from our community on a day to day basis - I sincerely hope that you are aware of the positive impact you make on us all as regular people and will endeavour to communicate this to you whenever possible.

Sometimes I write down quotes from touring bands that visit us - here's one that resonates strongly with me at the moment - "you guys have a lovely family here!" - THE BALLANTYNES (Vancouver).

We will always be a small perogi slingin' arcade that hosts a wide variety of shows - we love what we do and are looking forward to serving our community in any way we can. Ottawa is our home. We believe in a world that revolves around peace, kindness, friendship and love.

We've got an amazing month of new shows, classic games and lovingly prepared food coming your way in July - lets have some fun ... together.

- YOGI

FUTURE CLASSIC ALBUMS REVIEWED BY A MILLENNIAL

by 16year old Felix

FOLKS, EVERY NOW AND THEN YOU COME ACROSS A BAND WHICH YOU SECRETLY HAVE BEEN PRAYING FOR, AND WHEN IT FINALLY COMES AROUND YOU MAKE IT A PERSONAL MISSION TO SPREAD THE WORD OF THEIR ARRIVAL TO EVERYONE WHO IS WILLING TO LISTEN TO YOUR RANTING. Well, since I get to write these reviews every month, I can push my taste onto you poor souls. sigh Life is good. Where was I again? Oh, right, CROSS

DOG are one of those bands who hail from Peterborough and are signed to the mighty UNCLE D RECORDS who operate out of VERTIGO RECORDS in our very own city (which is Ottawa for anyone who has no idea where they are or what year it is. Seriously get your life together man). They are a three piece band with vocals (provided by Tracy A) drums (Mike Reid) and bass (Mark Rand). Now, I know what some of you may be thinking, "Only bass? Like dum dum da dum? Unacceptable! I need screeching guitar leads!" However, the riffs on this album are expertly constructed and will not only melt your mind and rip out your spine and strangle you with it, they will destroy you and everything you stand for. Am I overstating how good this album is? Maybe, but that's for you to decide, cuz in all honesty I don't know what I'm talking about any more than you (the reader) do.

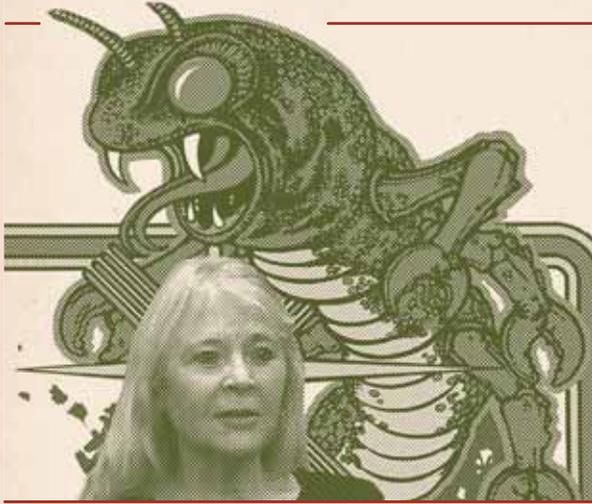

The album kicks off with HOT SHARK, one of the faster tracks on this album, and one that will stick in your head long after the initial first listen. While there are only 7 tracks on VIGILANTE, CROSS DOG have made a point of making songs that are memorable, with catchy shout-along choruses on songs like HIGH GAIN, PROGRESS and the title track. While there are several faster moments on this album (such as the aforementioned HIGH GAIN & HOT SHARK), CROSS DOG is making progress (no pun intended) and moving forward as a band by putting more emphasis on the slower, more stoner rock influenced riffage such as on the intro & outro of WIDOW, which wouldn't sound entirely out of place on SLEEP'S HOLY MOUNTAIN. The vocals of Tracy are great as usual, and backing vocals are often provided by Mark Rand, who has some great rough, growly shouts during this album.

CROSS DOG have produced their most focused effort yet, with the song writing much more varied and catchier than on their self-titled debut (which I still recommend checking out, as it absolutely rips). For fans of THE SHRINE, MOTORHEAD, ANTI-CIMEX and Slip it in & My War era BLACK FLAG.

ATARI'S SMASH HIT CENTIPEDE WAS INTRODUCED IN 1981 BY CO-CREATOR DONA BAILEY (ONE OF THE ONLY FEMALE PROGRAMMERS IN THE ENTIRE INDUSTRY AT THE TIME). THIS HIGH TENSION GAME TRADED UP LASER GUNS FOR MUSHROOMS, SCORPIONS & FLEAS AND WAS AIMED AT ATTRACTING WOMEN GAMERS WITH ITS ARRESTING VISUALS. BAILEY SAID "I REALLY LIKE PASTELS...". QUICK ADVICE FROM SLO' TOM

DEAR SLO' TOM: WHO IS YOUR FAVOURITE SINGING DRUMMER?
- DaveD

Hey DaveD: How about I tell you who I hate first? I would pay to have that goddam Phil Collins guy killed except that I don't think I could survive the endless memorials and tributes that would inevitably follow. I also don't like that Eagles dude who sang "Hotel California". And don't even get me started on Peter Criss from KISS. He's a "singing drummer" who can't sing OR drum!

HI SLO' TOM: I THINK LITA FORD IS 100 TIMES COOLER THAN JOAN JETT. MY BUDDY THINKS JOAN JETT IS BY FAR THE COOLER ONE. WHAT DO YOU THINK? SIGNED - Signed, #1Litafan

Dear #1Litafan: Wow this is a tough one! Let's use a points system and add it up!

KISS

PINBALL REVIEW BY MONTY

IN JUNE THE OTTAWA PUNK PINBALL CREW MADE THE TREK TO MONTREAL ROCK CITY TO ROCK AND ROLL ALL NITE AT THE OFFICIAL LAUNCH PARTY OF STERN'S NEW KISS PINBALL MACHINE.

While none of us in the crew were exactly elite members of the KISS Army, after playing it there was no hesitation to SHOUT IT OUT LOUD that this pinball machine is HOTTER THAN HELL!

The artwork is a real standout on this pin being a true homage to Bally's 1978 version of the game. Done in the classic hand drawn style of pinball's glory days and reminiscent of KISS cover artwork (ie. LOVE GUN) band members adorn the cabinet and playfield intermingled with lots of fire and explosions.

Players will recognize the game begins like Stern's other band-themed pins, Metallica & AC/DC, by selecting a song to play to. The game is intended to take place at a KISS concert so along with choosing your track of choice (LICK IT UP was a crowd favourite) you also get to select the city you're playing in. The DEUCE duo of Paul Stanley and Gene Simmons have recorded custom callouts and stage banter that add to the energy, excitement, and experience of a live KISS show ("How many of you people like to take a taste of ALCOHOLLLLLL?"). Stern has also upgraded their audio system for those who LOVE IT LOUD.

The playfield, which was designed by John Borg of Tron, Metallica, and The Walking Dead pinball fame, has a nice open layout with shots that just feel good to hit. Perhaps the coolest feature on KISS' playfield is a giant Gene Simmons head that has a spinner disc inside that locks balls and then spits them out for the 'Demon multiball' mode.

The artwork, rocking sound package, and the superb playfield layout all come together to make KISS one great pinball machine chock full of all the blood-spitting, fire-breathing, cheesy rock n' roll goodness you can handle.

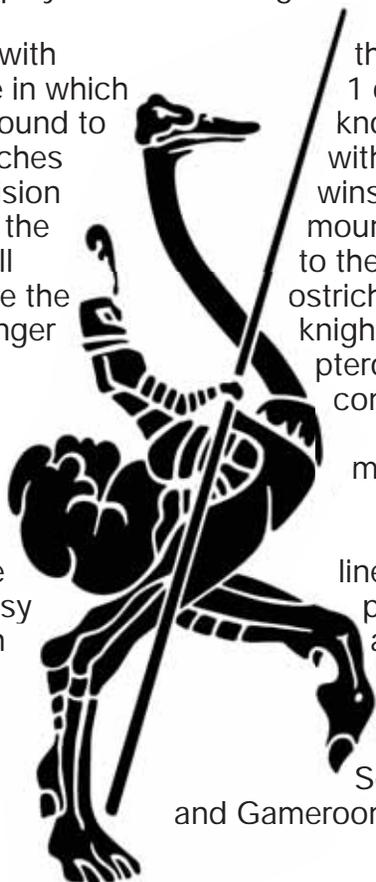

PREPARE -THY MOUNT!

By Pinball JOSH - www.ottawapinball.com

THE EXCITEMENT OF WIZARDS YOGI, KEVIN, AND MARK IS PALPABLE AT TARG THESE DAYS AS WE HAVE FINALLY ACQUIRED THE WIZARD FAVORITE "JOUST"!

The 1982 game by Williams wasn't the first video game to offer 2 player simultaneous play, but it was the game to popularize it.

For those unfamiliar with this bizarre fantasy game in which ostriches and flap around to their respective ostriches lance at point of collision. Once knocked off of the mount, enemy knights become eggs and fall to the ground. You must collect the egg before the ostrich can get to it or the egg will hatch a stronger knight. If clearing the stage is taking too long, a pterodactyl emerges from the lava below and the game, JOUST is a 1 or 2 players hop on to knock other knights off with a lance. The highest wins. mount, enemy knights to the ground. You must ostrich can get to it or the knight. If clearing the stage pterodactyl emerges from comes after you...

They just don't anymore.

Expect JOUST in the we may have a fantasy coming in this month often.

That's all for this focusing on this anniversary Pinball done yo!

I OFTEN STARE BLANKLY INTO THE ABYSS OF MY TOY COLLECTION AND THIS IS WHAT I AM CERTAIN THEY ARE SAYING.

A NOD TO THE ODD

UNUSUAL GUITARS

WORLDS MOST DANGEROUS GUITAR

Learning an instrument requires discipline & dedication but when the option to slack off & play DUCK HUNT is so readily available, progress is bound to suffer.

HOLY DIVER

This is the premier instrument of choice for those hellbent on playing cheesy metal ballads of the 80's.

WHAT?

Q: "What's your band called?"

A: N/A

Q "What kind of guitar is that"

A: N/A

Q "What's your deal?"

A: "I'm Prince"

FOR PROS ONLY

Not only is this axe impossible to master it also presents insurmountable challenges for looking cool while playing it. Never give up.

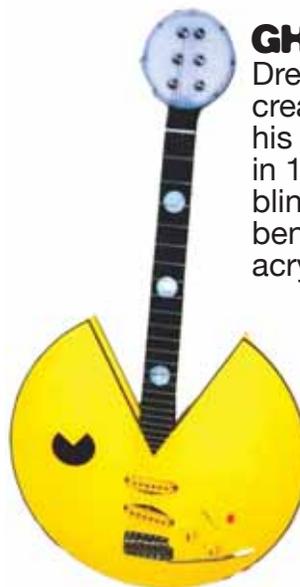

HAIR GUITAR

ZZ Top showcased matching fuzzy bass/guitars in their 1983 hit video for "LEGS", but let's face it, we were all just trying to figure out what arcade games that crappy diner had. Clearly one was Space Invaders but what game was the woman in the blue pinstripe dress playing?

GHOST NOTES

Dream-maker Ian Schneller created this masterpiece out of his Chicago shop SPECIMEN in 1998. It features twelve blinking light bulbs nestled beneath translucent white acrylic on headstock. OK then.

"CUT IT OUT"...

Joey from FULL HOUSE. nails this one. Stop the madness & just play.

WHAT IF WEIRD AL LIVED IN OTTAWA?

WELL... HE PROBABLY WOULD HAVE WRITTEN THESE SONGS...

He'd turn "IF YOU LOVE 'ER, BUY HER A GUN" by legendary Ottawa punk funksters Furnaceface into:

"IF YOU LOVE 'ER BUY HER A BUN"

WEIRD AL IS THE KING OF CULINARY COMEDY & WILL JUMP AT THE CHANCE TO FOOD SPOOF ANY SONG + THE GERMAN DELI ON ALBERT STREET HAS WICKED/CHEAP HAM & CHEESE BUNS.

Parody of: "LOVERS IN A DANGEROUS TIME" by Bruce Cockburn

"FOODIES at a dangerous time"

HAVE YOU EVER TRIED TO GET A GOOD MEAL IN OUR CITY AFTER 10:30 PM THAT WASN'T PIZZA OR SHAWARMA? IMPOSSIBLE & WEIRD AL WOULD HAVE ADAPTED THIS PROTEST SONG TO REFLECT A VERY SERIOUS ISSUE.

Parody of Paul Anka's: "PUT YOUR HEAD ON MY SHOULDER"

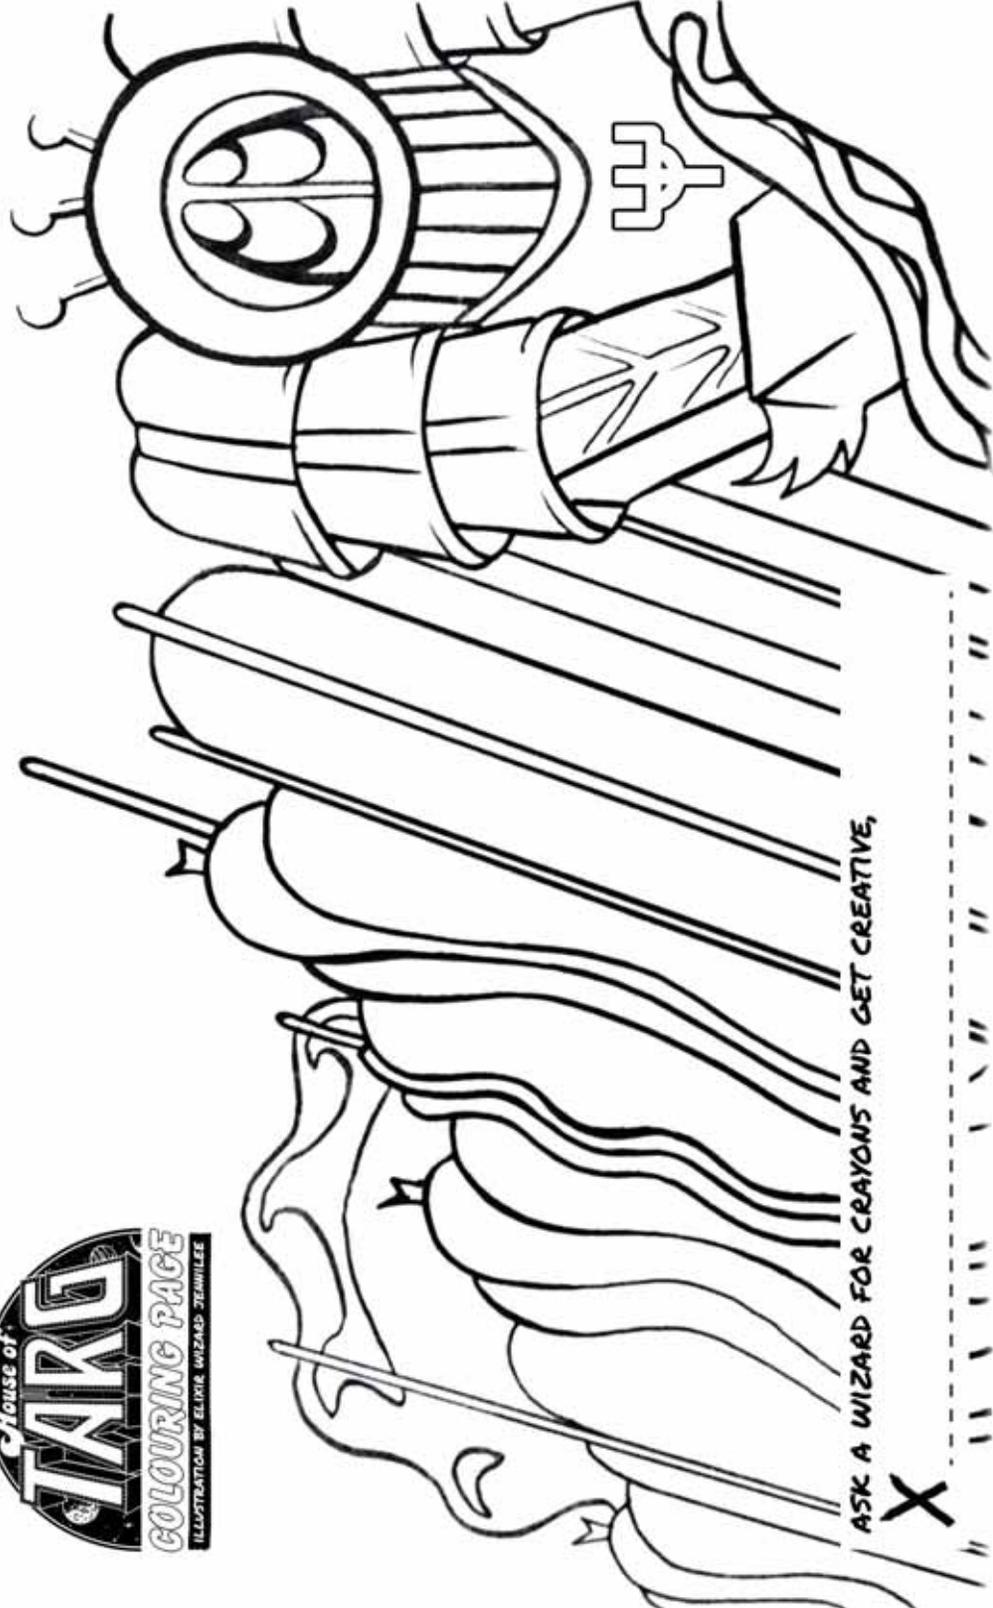

"DON'T EAT PORK SHOULDER"

YEP WEIRD AL HAS BEEN VEGAN SINCE 1998. ITS A NO BRAINER THAT HE WOULD TRANSFORM THIS CLASSIC LOVE BALLAD INTO A PLEA TO GET FOLKS TO STOP EATING MEAT.
