BLACK FOREST MAGIC

Lots of magic happened at this year Beau's Oktoberfest, especially at the BLACK FOREST STAGE. Birling, Beau's, Vans & House of TARG all joined forces to raise over $6000 dollars for our fave skateboard charities in Ottawa - Thanks to everyone who donated by to playing "Beat the Wizard" & signing their name on WIZARD1. Perhaps even more magical and bewildering is that not 1 penis was drawn on our 1973 Beetle this year. There is hope!

THE SEGA GENESIS TURNS 30 THIS MONTH

On October 29, 1988 - Sega released the Mega Drive home console in Japan which would be known as Genesis when it was introduced to North America the following year. It has sold over 30 million units and boasts a library of over 900 games including ultra violent & controversial games like Mortal Kombat & some stinkers like SHAQ-FU. Anyhow we know you had one and just wanted to make you feel old.

TARG VS THE TORNADO

Last month we set out a few donation jars to help get the OTTAWA FOOD BANK shelves stocked again and you guys really came through to help out with the tornado relief effort by donating $951 in just one weekend... talk about a high score - way to go Targians!

HOW COULD FREEPLAY SUNDAYS GET ANY BETTER?

Well....how about we make Jägermeister shots only $5. Join us for unlimited arcade action every Sunday 8pm - 2am for just $6.

ARCADE RUMOUR ALERT

There is talk that the 1987 ATARI futuristic warfare driving game ROADBLASTERS is finally coming to TARG this month. This rarely seen cabinet (especially around TARG) is equipped with an ultra cool steering wheel decked out with thumb buttons/triggers & there is only a gas pedal, no brake... who needs to slow down when you can blast through traffic with your laser artillery & special weapons?

BE THE OFFICE HERO: SUGGEST HAVING THE STAFF XMAS PARTY AT TARG

Now is the time to start putting the bug in your office admins ear about having an actual fun xmas party this year. # ADVENTURES OF SATURDAY THE 13TH

(BECAUSE THE 13TH FALLS ON A SATURDAY THIS MONTH)

TARG

HEY TARG. WHAT'S WITH THE MASK? DIDN'T YOU QUIT HOCKEY?

THIS IS JUST... MY HALLOWEEN COSTUME.

OKAY, BUT WHAT'S WITH THE BLOODY BAO?

THIS?

OH PANG, IS THAT A REAL FINGER STICKING OUT?

NO... THAT'S... JUST...

CANDY.

CANDY...

I SEE.

HEY HAVE YOU SEEN BILL AROUND?

WAIT... I THOUGHT YOU QUIT HOCKEY...

GAME: ARKANOID 2

YEAR: TAITO 1987

RANK: ★★★★★

Taito certainly lives up to its name as far as video games are concerned, and Arkanoid: Revenge of Doh is no exception. Along with Double Dragon (1987), and Chase H.Q. (1988), Taito's supremacy can almost give Atari a run for its money.

With its graphics and setting dazzling, Ark 2 starts out like the first Arkanoid, with a story line to boot. It appears that Doh, a dimensional controlling entity, has escaped. To capture this fiend, a new type of vaus (paddle) has been sent to the coordinates of Zark, where Doh was last seen. Players must fight their way through 34 levels of puzzle madness, as new mazes of blocks stand in their way. You can destroy blocks for points. Watch out for the gold ones, as those cannot be destroyed. And BE CAREFUL! Some blocks, either gold or silver, will move across the screen once hit, which might help or hinder your progress. You'll receive an extra Vaus at 20,000 points.

Even the capsules have received an upgrade

- B-BREAK: Provides an emergency exit to clear the present round
- C-CATCH: Vans (paddle) catches energy ball and player can shoot it wherever they like.
- D-DISRUPTION: Energy ball splits into 8 parts.
- E-EXPANDS: Expands Vaus horizontally.
- I-ILLUSION: Phantom Vaus reflects energy balls as well.
- L-LASER: Vaus shoots laser beams.
- M-MEGA BALL: Will break through blocks on its way.
- N-NEW DISRUPTION: Energy ball splits and stays at 3 parts.
- P-PLAYER EXTEND: Awarded with additional Vaus.
- R-REDUCTION: Vaus contracts, but awards twice the points.
- T-TWIN: Splits Vaus in two, Finally, laser beams will take out silver pieces, but not the gold ones.

Happy Thanksgiving, gamers! See you next month!

ABOUT PROFESSOR BERNIE
- VIDEO GAME PHD.

He's a TARG fixture & can be found at the TVs watching his beloved Senators or rippin' it up on Classic Vid Games. He's a bit of a "chip-nut" so bring him a bag of All-Dressed and he might give you some valuable vid tips in exchange.

HARSH HALLOWEENS of the 1970's & 80's

In the 70's & 80's there was only one name in Halloween Costumes - BEN COOPER. The company offered kids a chance to be just about any pop culture hero of the day... only problem was they totally sucked! Each box contained a suit - which was basically a garbage bag with the name of what you were supposed to be on it, & a poorly ventilated mask that would make your face sweat profusely (which is how i think acne was invented) + you were lucky if the elastic head-strap survived the nite. Here are some of unusual costume choices Gen X'ers had to make at Kmart back in the day..

CHACHI ARCOLA

Fans of Joani Loves Chachi had a very limited window to rock this costume cause the show only ran for 1 season between '82 & '83.

CHUCK NORRIS

Chuck is so tuff he can make onions cry... children on the other hand start crying after wearing this sauna of a costume for less than 15min.

THE FONZ

Heeey...yourself. Heeey who are you supposed to be again?"

RAMBO

The only way to authentically emulate Sly Stallone's non emotive facial acting is to wear this mask.

EVEL KNieVEL
The poor fit & limited visibility of this mask made the possibility of breaking as many bones as Evel very plausible.

CRAPPY BUNNY

I wore this one year and got beat up by Batman AND Spiderman. Thanks Mom!

THE MURDER PLANS – GOOD OMENS RELEASED 2010
RECORDED AND MIXED AT GALLERY STUDIOS
MASTERED AT BOVA SOUND

This time, let's take a trip to the not-so-distant past and take a look at what was at the top of my list of local releases in 2010, The Murder Plans LP Good Omens. This was the band's second (and final?) release, following up their self-titled 2007 EP. On this record, the four piece has moved away from the straight-up rock of their debut and produced 11 tracks of introspective, mostly mellow pop/rock, with bits that remind me of Wilco and Nick Cave, with slight traces of Tom Waits, PJ Harvey and even Mazzy Star (that's just me though!).

From the first few rotations of this disc, it is apparent that you are hearing some exceptional songcraft. The band took two full years to record the album, and this time well spent resulted in a meticulously thought out album. The arrangements are tight, melodies are singable but complex, and the harmonies add depth to the tasteful instrumentation. While they do get to let loose on a couple more rock-leaning tracks, the drums and percussion on this album are always propelling the band, even in the quieter moments. The lyrics are original and require thoughtful listening, and the vocal performances are superb.

The attention to detail on this recording is staggering, with not one note sounding gratuitous or out of place. Overall, the album is somewhat dark and brooding, but the quality of the songwriting and performances make it uplifting at the same time. This is not music to get you pumped for the big game, but it ain't sit in the dark and cry over that lost love type stuff either.

As you've probably guessed by now, I love this album. Do yourself a favour and find a download online, or if you are lucky enough to come across a copy on vinyl don't hesitate. Be sure to give it a first listen through good headphones if you can, it will make you happy.

Larry is one of the owners of Meow! That's Hot Kitchen + Bar at 519 Bank St., where they feature local products and spin Canadian vinyl all day, every day. He also performs bass duties with local hardcore heroes Slim and Popular, and rockers Thunderuncle.

SISTERS IN THE CITY

INTERVIEWS WITH
Inspirational Women in the Ottawa Arts, Business & Entertainment Scene

BY: WIZARD SHEILA

AN INTERVIEW WITH KIM MOSS

JOB TITLE(S): President of Kamp Operations & Mom

Kim heads up KAMP OPERATIONS, an integral & unique business that helps keep some of our cities most important cultural events running smooth. Not only does her company provide security services (& special portal wizards for TARG), KAMP also offers a robust list of logistics support & volunteer services for large events & festivals including Ottawa Bluesfest, Arboretum Festival, Ottawa Folkfest... if you had fun at it, Kim & her peeps were probably involved.

WHAT JOBS AND EXPERIENCES HAVE LED TO YOUR PRESENT POSITION(S)?

I've always been drawn to events and music and festivals but more so the people and personalities behind the lights and sound and the facade, if you will. Psychology is a passion of mine, in particular the psychology of people and what better place to find such a mishmash of personalities at an event. From the organizers, to the artists, the labourers, security and volunteers. It truly takes all kinds.

WHAT DOES A TYPICAL WORK DAY ENTAIL FOR YOU?

Well, I'm a mom of a 6 and 3 year old as well as a business owner and entrepreneur so I'd best describe my typical day as a juggling act. I work from home most days, so in between doing payroll, wiping butts, scheduling staff, making lunch, talking to volunteers and clients and taking out the garbage, I sometimes manage a little time to crochet a blanket or work on my latest 'paint by number's' project. And then it's show time when everything I've orchestrated plays out and I get to watch all my work unfold, in the moment, for all it's beauty and chaos. Maybe even have a beer.

TELL US ABOUT A PROJECT OR ACCOMPLISHMENT THAT YOU CONSIDER TO BE SIGNIFICANT IN YOUR CAREER.

Truly, my kids are my greatest accomplishment. They have been and continue to be most significant to my career because when I'm on site at an event and everything feels crazy and the anxiety starts to kick in and I wonder if I'm good enough, smart enough or if doggone it, people like me, I think to myself "at the end of all this, do I still have my kids?" and the answer to that is always yes. That keeps me grounded and sane and focused on my work. That is what allows me to accomplish anything because the thought of them and their future propels me forward. I need both my little girl and my little boy to see a strong woman, on top of it all, taking care of bidness and not lying down when the going gets tough.

WHAT DO YOU LIKE MOST ABOUT WORKING IN YOUR INDUSTRY?

The people, not all the people because let's face it, a lot of people suck. Especially in events. It can be very cut throat and very bottom line and sometimes you have to ask yourself, where is the love but it's there for the most part. It's like going to battle and at the end of the day, you look around and you see your team and they have that same, 'holy crap' look on their face but you know you did it and you know you did it together. And even though you may not see these people every day or even every month, it creates a special bond. It's very meaningful for me.

HOW DO YOU BEST SEEK OUT OPPORTUNITIES FOR NEW PROJECTS?

There's a lot of opportunity for networking at events. Ottawa isn't a huge place. Most people work on more than one event so just getting to know those around you, asking questions, figuring out where you might fit in and knowing what you like to do and are capable of doing is huge.

HOW DO YOU KEEP UP WITH THE LATEST NEWS IN YOUR LINE OF WORK?

Social media is obviously a source for finding out about new events but again, it's all about talking to people and finding out who's dreaming up the next fun thing to work on.

WHAT WOULD YOU TELL SOMEONE ABOUT TO START A CAREER IN YOUR FIELD?

It's Tricky to rock a rhyme, to rock a rhyme that's right on time
It's Tricky, it's Tricky (Tricky) Tricky (Tricky)-
[RUN-DMC outro plays]

WHERE CAN WE FIND YOU ONLINE?

HALLOWEEN MONTH!

For many Mayfair patrons, October is their favourite month of the year. We screen cool horror movies all year long, but of course like to spotlight the genre as all Hallows' Eve approaches.

On the theme of 'I can't believe you haven't seen' essential viewing, the Embarrassing Humans podcast presents the Mel Brooks masterpiece, YOUNG FRANKENSTEIN.

A Company of Fools presents a fundraiser screening of GHOSTBUSTERS. I saw Ghostbusters on the big screen when I was eight years old. I wanted to be a Ghostbuster when I grew up. I still do.

By popular demand, and because the powers-that-be took notice of how great our box office was on the initial run, we are able to host encores of the Nic Cage phenomenon that is MANDY.

Proud to present Ottawa Premieres of two Canadian horror films, KNUCKLEBALL, and THE HOLLOW CHILD.

Sadly double bills don't work for the most part anymore. The exception seems to be our annual horror movie double-bill. Get there early, and expect a blockbuster line-up for THE SHINING / THE EXORCIST.

And, the tradition that is the marathon of three nights, and seven screenings of THE ROCKY HORROR PICTURE SHOW, featuring the spectacular Absent Friends Shadow Cast!

For showtimes and other upcoming movies, please visit www.mayfairtheatre.ca

Dear Slo'- My fridge is always full of food that's way past the 'best before' date. My boyfriend says it doesn't really matter but I say "No way, José" (that's his real name!). I want to chuck it out but José says it's still good! Who's right? Please help us figure this out!

Signed, BestB4now

HEY BESTB4NOW: Your boyfriend, José, is right this time! Those best before dates are pretty fake in the first place, but anything in the fridge is good for weeks (and sometimes MONTHS) longer. As I write this column, I'm eating a piece of naan bread that had a best before date of September 1st! That's over 5 weeks overdue! Sure, I feel a little queasy, but there's nothing else in the fridge and my Mom hasn't brought over anything for me to eat lately (or clean this place up!) so what am I supposed to do, you know?

And what if it's in the freezer? Freezers are magic – frozen stuff is good for YEARS! So ignore those pesky best before dates and put everything in the fridge or freezer! You'll thank me for it! Bon appetite, BestB4now

Dear Slo - Why do men always urinate on the toilet seat? Would it kill you guys to lift the seat when you take a wiz?&nbsp; We women put up with a lot dealing with you idiots without having to endure ignorant stuff like this.&nbsp; What the hell is wrong with you and your gender? Are you animals? I don't want to know what you guys are up to in there, but for cryin' out loud, could you at least LIFT the seat before you let 'er fly? I don't think this is asking too much.

Signed – PissedOFF

DEAR PISSEDOFF: Thanks for your letter. Many people don't know this, but up until the early 1960's men DID lift the toilet seat before "drainin' the main vein". Guys NEVER use to piss on the seat! That all changed in 1963, however, when the World Health Organization passed a resolution asking - as a fairness to men - that women&nbsp; leave the toilet seat up half the time. Women flat out refused to do this

(there were even violent protests in Washington with women burning toilet seats!). Remember - men only need it down half the time. Women always need it down (unless they're, like, puking or something). So in response to this unfair practice, men ALWAYS purposely pee on the seat if it's left down. The hope is that someday women will come to their senses and leave the toilet seat up at least half the time.&nbsp; Once they do this, men have agreed to stop pissing all over the seat. So the solution to your problem is pretty simple, PissedOFF...&nbsp; either leave the seat up or deal with the consequences! Fair is fair.

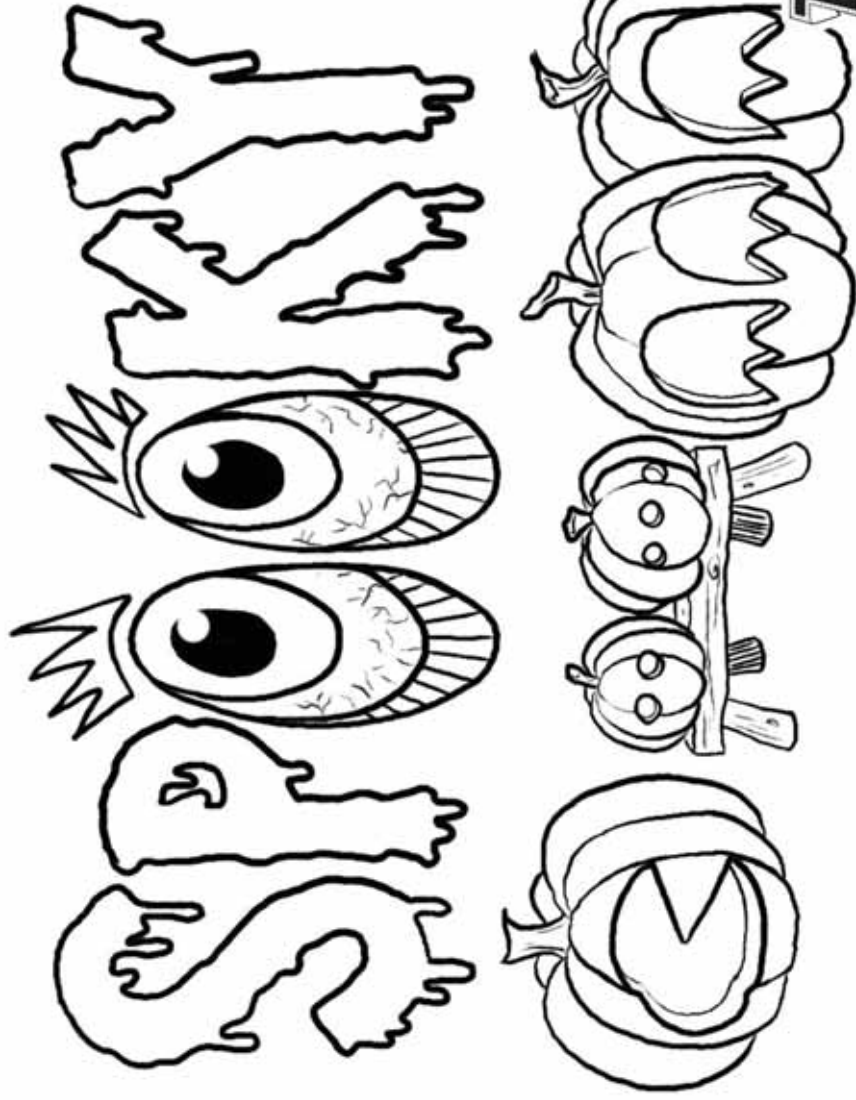

P.S. Don't believe me? Check out any men's bathroom. You'll see that we always leave the seats urine free in the upright position. We know exactly what we're doing in there.

Dear Slo - I like your advice column but half the time you just sound like your ranting about whatever stuff is bugging you instead of actually supplying advice! Are any of the questions actually from real people? Or is your column just an opportunity to voice your latest complaints? Signed: ???ingly&nbsp;

DEAR ???INGLY: A lot of my readers have accused me of just making up these letters and that all I really do is use the advice column as a thin disguise to spout whatever half-baked rants come to mind. And you know that buck-a-beer thing? Will they be available in the dollar store? How will that work? How can they make a beer for a dollar when a bottle of water costs more than a buck? What will they make the beer out of? It must be water they can't sell as... you know... water, right? And what about those chemtrails? Did you ever think about those? I mean, if the government can arrange to have all these planes and pilots and airports and maintenance people filling these jets with some kind of secret gas to spray into the atmosphere, wouldn't they just use a gas that isn't visible? Like, why would they use a gas that looks like condensation? I don't get it. And remember when Gary Coleman died? Whatchu'talkin' 'bout, Willis? That was messed up. My dad couldn't believe it. Have you ever been at one of those parties where suddenly you go "YEAH!" and you start running around and spilling everyone's drinks and skipping the record? That's pretty bad ass. Ok, my mom says I have to get off the computer now.
