Dear Slo' Tom: I've developed a really bad rash on my behind! It looks like someone's taken a cheese grater and gone to town on rear end. I tell ya, this thing looks like I've been hit with a double dose of napalm. I don't want to go to a doctor because the last time I went they told me I had Legionaire's Disease. What the hell is Legionaire's Disease? I've never even BEEN to a legion! What do I look like... a veteran? Anyway, what should I do about this rash on my dumpster? I've got a caboose that looks like a bad night in Lac-Megantic. It's driving me nuts! Ya gotta help me Tom!
Yours - SOOPER ITCHY
Yours - SOOPER ITCHY

DEAR SOOPER ITCHY: Hmmm.... that rash sounds serious! You're wise to avoid doctors - they always have some smart-ass diagnosis. Just a bunch of big words and sketchy advice. Doctors are definitely a dubious bunch so I don't blame you for being suspicious. P.H.D? More like P.H.Don't! Ha! But you're in luck. There's a simple cure for all lower body rashes: starting on the full moon, rub it with a fresh onion twice per night. Change your underwear once a week but DO NOT bathe (bathing will remove the special onion medicine). By the next full moon, your rash will be gone. If not, come by my shop at Spaceman Music (388 Gladstone). I might be able to set you up with a better onion. Good luck, SOOPER ITCHY.

Dear Slo' Tom: I'm a faithful reader of your column and I have big problem. I hope you can help me with it. My parents want me to become an engineer, but I'm not sure... I'm more interested in medicine or maybe a law degree. I don't want to disappoint my parents, but I'm not sure if engineering is for me. What do you think I should do?
Signed - University Bound

DEAR UNIVERSITY BOUND: Being an engineer is not for everyone. However, there are many related careers that might be of more interest to you. For example, my great uncle Hubert was a brakeman on the Brockville - Cornwall line. My uncle Lloyd was a 'fireman' shoveling coal on the Moncton Express, and I had many relatives who worked as porters, switch operators, and flagmen. Perhaps you should apply to be a porter on a local line. That way you can get a feeling for the many excellent railway careers and then decide if you want to pursue becoming an engineer. All aboard!!!

SKA JEFF'S HI-FIVES

THIS MONTH I AM COUNTING DOWN MY TOP 5 FILMATION CARTOONS. FILMATION'S FIRST PRODUCTION WAS THE CARTOON ROD ROCKET IN 1963, AND FROM THERE THEY PRODUCED SOME OF THE BEST CARTOONS AND LIVE-ACTION SHOWS UP UNTIL THE LATE 80S. I GREW UP WATCHING MANY OF THESE 'TOONS.

5. BRAVESTARR (1987-1988):

A native American marshal and his friends keep the peace on the frontier planet of New Texas. My brother and I watched this show a lot. Still have my BraveStarr sleeping bag!

4. THE ADVENTURES OF BATMAN (1968-1970):

Also known as Batman with Robin the Boy Wonder. Classic Batman and Robin action, and cool fact! Casey Kasem did the voice of the boy wonder, Robin!

3. SHE-RA: PRINCESS OF POWER (1985-1986):

The show follows the adventures of Princess Adora, Prince Adam/He-Man's twin sister, who leads a group of freedom fighters known as the Great Rebellion in the fight to free Etheria from the tyrannical rule of Hordak and the Evil Horde. Use to watch this show for hours..

2. BLACKSTAR (1981):

John Blackstar, astronaut, is swept through a black hole, into an ancient alien universe. Trapped on the planet Sagar, Blackstar is rescued by the tiny Trobbit people. In turn, he joins their fight for freedom against the cruel Overlord. Loved this show!

1. HE-MAN AND THE MASTERS OF THE UNIVERSE (1983-1985):

One of my childhood favs! The show, often referred to as simply He-Man, was one of the most popular animated children's shows of the 1980s, and has retained a heavy cult following to this day.

THE LOCAL MIX

INSIDE THE MUSIC STUDIOS THAT RECORD
THE BANDS YOU GO TO SEE PERFORM LIVE.

DAVE DRAVES, local Indie rock Veteran (FishTales, Camp Radio, Fiftymen) & music producer is the mad scientist & head matador at LITTLE BULLHORN, arguably the most unique recording studio in the area. This Centretown backyard recording facility boasts wall to wall Spanish bullfighting artwork and a calming softness amongst a chaotic trove of vintage instruments & gear. Recording at LITTLE BULLHORN is for those who want an experience while making their music & the mystique of the space always manages to find it's way onto the end product. It's no wonder that insightful artists like KATHLEEN EDWARDS, THE SKYDIGGERS, JIM BRYSON, HOWE GELB, COSTAL PIGS & JEREMY GARA (Arcade Fire) have all spent time in this magical oasis. Let's talk to Dave:

WHO ARE THE ENGINEERS?

Me (Dave Draves), Jarrett Bartlett & Sebastien Perry does some work here also.

WHO HAS RECORDED THERE?

I've had a crazy number of great people record here just this past weekend a guitarist named Kevin Breit was here he was amazing he's played with Nora Jones, Serena Ryder, Rosanne Cash, KD Lang ... it was a treat for sure I have had musicians from across Canada, USA, GB, Australia and even Cuba

IS THERE A PARTICULAR GENRE YOU GUYS SPECIALIZE IN?

I always enjoy live off the floor rock of any type especially recorded 16 track to 2 inch tape and I always enjoy producing singer songwriters but the answer is no.

WHAT INSPIRED YOU TO CREATE THIS STUDIO?

I have a very close contact with the studio as it's in my backyard. I've always done whatever inspires me and the place is a collection of thrift store decor mostly matador also I collected awesome vintage gear in the 90's before it was too pricey.

WHAT SETS YOU APART FROM OTHER RECORDING STUDIOS?

I always imagined myself creating and I was in bands through the 80's/90's in Ottawa when one of my bands was folding I had a chance to buy some equipment and build the first part of my studio from then on it was my priority to make it work. I started with practice rooms at night and recording in the days/weekends and as the recording side grew I had less rehearsal bands. I always have ideas on other people's songs some of them are good.

WHAT IS THE MOST CHERISHED PIECE OF GEAR AT THE STUDIO?

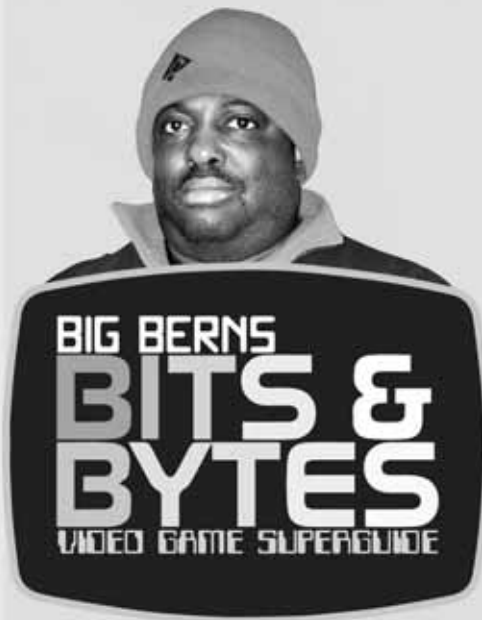

Hard to say without being a gear nerd. I like all my older analog stuff especially when it has collected dust you dust it off and it still works it always suits my world more than computers. I have implemented computers to the point of being irreplaceable but I like to have to hit a piece of gear to make it work sometimes kind of like flying the Millennium Falcon - the answer is my API mixing board.

GAME: DOUBLE DRAGON

YEAR: TAITO 1987

RANK: ★★★★★

I find it hard to believe that Taito's Double Dragon actually turned 30 years old last month. But it's true! What's more, this fighting game really set the bar for its predecessors such as Street Fighter (1989), Mortal Kombat (1992), and Final Fight (1990). To start with, Marian (Hammer's girlfriend) has been kidnapped by the Black Warriors, a really tough-as-nails street gang. Assisted by his brother Spike, Hammer goes on a kick-butt rampage to get the love of his life back.

The name of the game: Kick, punch, chop, and elbow anyone and everyone in sight. Use whips, barrels, bats, sticks of dynamite (and daggers) to your advantage and at your disposal. Practice and utilize the elbow manoeuvre, it will come in handy against the bigger baddies & the big boss!

The gang members you'll be facing are: WILLIAMS: Generic punk. He'll be usually armed with a baseball bat, dynamite, and daggers.

LOPAR: A tad stronger than Williams. He likes to throw oil drums, rocks, and crates.

LINDAS: A female who carries a whip and also is a very fragile opponent. You won't see her after Level 3.

BOBO & ABOB: These are big, muscular guys who like to throw people. You'll face Abobo at the end of Level 1 and a green version at the end of Mission 3.

JEFF: Level 2 end boss. Looks just like your characters with moves similar to yours.

WILLY: The final big boss. Armed with a machine gun & very trigger-happy.

As for the missions, Level 4 is very short (you only have to fight 6 people), whereas Level 3 is fairly long. See you next month, gamers!

ABOUT PROFESSOR BERNIE
- VIDEO GAME PHD.

He's a TARG fixture & can be found at the TVs watching his beloved Senators or rippin' it up on Classic Vid Games. He's a bit of a "chip-nut" so bring him a bag of All-Dressed and he might give you some valuable vid tips in exchange.

ARCADE NEWS

THE SIMPSONS - Data East 1990

Based on the animated sitcom, features many elements from the series, such as character voices and music. The machine is equipped with a Yamaha synthesizer that plays the theme song from the television series. Simpsons creator Matt Groening even advised the producers while developing the game - too legit!

GAME OF THRONES - Stern 2015

Winter is coming? It appears it is already here. Packed with features and toys that provide an irresistible challenge to play against kings, knights, knaves and dragons. Each player can choose to be a Knight of the Stark, Lannister, Greyjoy, Baratheon, Martell, or Tyrell family Houses, and pick other Houses to battle.

PLAYBOY - Bally 1978

A true classic. Monty wrote some game tips for it in this month's MASTER CLASS article - that way he doesn't have to hang around the machine in his speedo to tell you how to play it. So thankful.

ARCADE RUMOURS

ICE COLD BEER

- Taito 1983

Word on the street is that this fan fave might be back at TARG sometime this month. Fingers crossed.

ORBITOR 1 - Stern 1982

A little birdie hinted that this wacked out space themed game could be on loction this month. It features a molded 3-D Plexiglas playfield, with the moonscape surface artwork suspended beneath it. The moonscape is lit from below by a fluorescent tube. Trippy!

Released in 1978, Bally PLAYBOY was the first in a series of Playboy-themed pinball machines released over the years including Data East's 1989 version and Stern's 2002 version. The backglass depicts Hugh Hefner with 1976 Playmate Patti McGuire and 1977 Playmate Sondra Theodore. This is a classic Bally 'bonus' game so if you're "just reading for the articles" I'll be providing tips to help you advance your score and make it into the Mansion.

LOOK FOR THE 5 PLAYBOY MANSION KEYS

4 are located in the lanes at the top of the playfield (A) while one is located on a stand up target below the pop bumpers (B).

MAKING 5 KEYS PROVIDES THE FOLLOWING AWARDS:

- 1st time lights 2X Bonus
- 2nd time lights 3X Bonus
- 3rd time lights 5X Bonus
- 4th time scores an Extra Ball or 50,000 points when Special is lit.

Knocking all drop targets down (C) the 1st time lights the Special and outlanes for 25,000 points. 2nd time scores Extra Ball or 50,000 points when Special is lit.

Lighting all 5 Playmate stand ups (D) the 1st time lights Extra Ball rollover button or 25,000 Points. 2nd time lights rollover for Special to score 50,000 points.

See you in the grotto! - Monty
